MY YACHT CLUB:

There's a party this weekend for F1 that will blow you away, as we found out from Nicholas Frankl, the creator of My Yacht Club. It's amazingly fancy. Just to give you a hint: they're having bottles of gold-infused champagne wrapped in gold leaf that's specially engraved and personalized. Yeah. They started this party at the Monaco Grand Prix, and now that Austin is having F1, why not have such a badass party in Austin now? Leonardo DiCaprio, Val Kilmer, Matt LeBlanc, and all the F1 drivers will be there, and if you want to be, too, check out MyYachtClub.
